Use your imagination:
Imagine you are an official in Muhammad bin Tughlaq's court. The sultan decides to shift the capital from Delhi to Daulatabad. Briefly describe your experiences during the journey. If you were the sultan, what would you have done?

Use Your Imagination helps students to develop empathy for others and to relate their learning to the outside world.

In-Text Questions stimulate discussions in class.

Provides interesting snippets of information through Did You Know?

DID YOU KNOW?
There was once a man named John the Baptist, who was a cousin of Jesus. He used to preach and baptize people. One day, Jesus came from Nazareth and asked John to baptize him. John didn't know what to say. How could he, just a regular person, baptize Jesus, the Saviour of the world? But Jesus told him that they needed to do this to fulfill all righteousness.
So John baptized Jesus. He placed his hand on his back and laid him down into the water till he was covered and then brought him back up again. And just as soon as Jesus was baptized, the sky opened up and the Holy Spirit came like a beautiful white dove and landed on Jesus's shoulder.
Then a voice from heaven said, "This is my son, I love him and I am pleased with him."

Includes term-wise test papers for quick revision

Includes a revised pattern of Exercises to gradually prepare students for board examinations

TIME TRAVEL

This is a completely revised edition of the popular series on history and civics for classes 3, 4 and 5. It incorporates the latest syllabus guidelines of the Inter-State Board for Anglo-Indian Education. Maintaining a child-friendly approach, these three books provide a strong foundation for later learning by explaining the basic concepts of the subjects in a simple and lucid manner. By relating concepts and ideas to the child's environment, the series succeeds in making the study of history and civics a lively and exciting experience.
